

Canadian Institutes of Health Research “Meet the President - An Open Dialogue”

Monday, June 12, 2017

10:00am-11:30am

Medical Sciences Building, Room 2158 (MacLeod Auditorium) MAP

You are invited to an open session to meet the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) Acting President, Dr. Roderick McInnes. Dr. McInnes will be visiting the University of Toronto to discuss recent changes at CIHR, share his priorities, and answer your questions.

Monday, June 12, 2017 from 10am – 11:30am in the Medical Sciences Building, Room 2158, (MacLeod Auditorium), 1 King’s College Circle, University of Toronto.

Dr. McInnes' talk will be webcast from the MacLeod Auditorium in the Medical Sciences Building. The webinar is scheduled to begin at 10:00am. A few minutes before this time, do the following:

1. Click the link: <http://streaming.med.utoronto.ca/17128>

2. Type in your name and press Enter.

- A high-speed internet connection is recommended
- Headphone or earbuds are recommended
- There will be a presentation followed by a Q & A period. To ask a question, type it into the chat box and one of the presenters will respond to it verbally

All health researchers, research grants facilitators, and graduate students are invited to join.