

MD Program Foundations Curriculum (Years 1 & 2) Major Content Areas

Included below is a listing of the major content areas covered in the MD Program Foundations curriculum (Years 1 & 2), in alphabetical order:

- Anatomy
- Behavioural/social sciences
- Biochemistry
- Black Health
- Cancer
- Cardiovascular
- Career Exploration
- Cell biology
- Chronic Pain
- Clinical Skills
- Complex, Chronic Disease (including HIV, Developmental Disability/ Transitions in Care)
- Dermatologic
- Embryology
- Endocrine
- Epidemiology
- Ethics and Professionalism
- Gastrointestinal
- Genes and chromosomes
- Geriatrics
- Global Health
- Health advocacy
- Health in Community
- Health Sciences Research (including biostatistics, Evidence-based medicine)
- Hematology
- Histology
- Host defense (Microbiological, Immunological)
- Indigenous Health
- Infectious Disease Outbreak
- Interprofessional education
- Intersectionality & Equity
- Investigations
- Leadership (including health policy, healthcare system)
- Medical Imaging
- Medical Psychiatry
- Musculoskeletal
- Narrative Medicine (Humanities)
- Neonate, infant, child, and adolescent
- Neurologic
- Nutrition / Lifestyle Medicine
- Palliative Care
- Pathology
- Pathophysiology
- Patient Safety
- Person as a whole
- Pharmacology
- Physiology
- Psychiatric (Behavioural and personality)
- Reflection (Portfolio)
- Renal and urinary
- Reproductive (Gynecology, Sex and Gender Based Medicine, Obstetrics)
- Resilience
- Respiratory
- Special Senses (Ophthalmology, otolaryngology)
- Surgery
- Tissues and organs
- Trauma
- Ultrasound